

Virgin Mary & Child – Choctaw Nation

This Choctaw Virgin Mary and Child is one of three images that were painted by Fr. John Giuliani, a priest from Connecticut, who has found a charism in portraying Catholics saints as indigenous people. This painting is not connected to a particular event or a specific Marian devotion. It shows how our faith can be expressed in every culture, and how all peoples can find comfort and consolation in our Blessed Mother.